GENEALOGICAL COLUMN

The Editor
The Picton Gazette
Picton, Ontario, Canada

About a year ago I wrote a letter to The Editor, suggesting a genealogical column in The Picton Gazette. You printed a couple of letters in response to my suggestion and I received, personally, seven more.

The correspondence has been very gratifying and now I wish to "stir up" some more.

Several descendants of the BULL family in the United States are combining their efforts to try to print a BULL Family History. I have volunteered to collect all I can on the Canadian branches of the family, and would be very happy to hear from anyone who claims descendancy from the Bulls who first came to Prince Edward County in the 1790's.

Josiah Bull Jr. of Dutchess County, New York, lived and died in Dutchess County but he had sixteen children of whom three sons and eight daughters (the three youngest daughters by his second wife) came to Prince Edward County after his death.

It is very likely that anyone in the vicinity of Prince Edward County whose last name is Bull is one of his descendants, or of his brother, George, whose sons Amos, John and Josiah also lived in the area.

All old-time residents of Prince Edward County will be familiar with the names of the spouses of Josiah Jr.'s daughters and sons:

Amos married Martha Cunningham.

John married Mary Palen.

Josiah III married Sarah Cunningham.

Matilda married Cory Spencer.

Maturah married (1) Thomas Bowerman, (2) John Stinson.

Ruth married William Christy.

Phebe married William Hubbs.

Mehetabel married John Cooper.

Abigail married Amos Hubbs (half brother of William).

Patience married William Garrett.

Content Ann married Stephen Blount.

My grandmother's name was Matura, named after her grandmother, Matura, who was named after her aunt Maturah Bull (she was the only child of Phebe Bull, sister of Maturah).

I will be most happy to hear from any, or all, descendants of the above people.

Among my collection of genealogical material is a copy of a page of an old WINN Family Bible. Should anyone be interested in the name I will be happy to share the information with them.

Jacob Winn b. Oct. 1, 1744, d. April 10, 1810. Phebe, his wife, was b. April 1, 1751.

Jacob and Phebe Winn had eleven children, one of whom (Lucinda, born March 12, 1771) married (first) Job Cosghel and (second) William Hubbs at Hillier, Prince Edward County. Lucinda was a devout Quaker.

William Hubbs lived just off Hubbs Creek Road, at a settlement then known as "Hubbsville". He had purchased the property in 1814. In 1846 he sold the home to Abraham Hubbs, his nephew, and with his second wife, Lucinda Winn Cosghel, went to Elgin County, Ontario to live with his only child, Matura.

Matura had married Stephen Haight in 1820 at Hillier, and removed to Elgin County in 1833. My efforts to connect Stephen Haight with the other Hights of Prince Edward County are fruitless. Recently, from among old papers discovered in Elgin County, I find that though Matura was an educated person, her husband had no education. There is some basis for concluding that the original spelling of his father's name (Jessey Haight, born 1768, birthplace unknown) was not HAIGHT but possibly HYATT or some such spelling.

Could there be in the possession of any Hyatts in Prince Edward County an old family Bible that might contain the names of Jessey, b. Jan. 20, 1768 and his son Stephen, born 1795?

Any help anyone can give me will be much appreciated.

Yours sincerely,
MARY YOUNG

JETPORT

P.S.: I cannot resist commenting about something which has me quite concerned, though I have never been a resident of the county. That is the possibility of a jet airport on the island. I realize that something is needed for the economy of the county, but oh I do hope that some other means can be found other than the establishment of a jet base. Once done it can never be reversed and I fear many residents would live to be sorry about it should it occur.

Mrs. Young includes a clipping which reads as follows:

LAWMAKER TAKES AIM AT JET NOISE

Sacramento — A San Francisco legislator will introduce a package of bills designed to reduce what he says is a pollution of California air by "the unnerving roar and whine" of jet aircraft engines.

And the resulting roar and whine from airport and airline operators over the proposal might equal, in decibel count, that of the jet engines.

The bill, by Assemblyman John F. Foran (D.-San Francisco) is the first major state government thrust into the thorny problem of jet age noise — and with a price

Dagwood: "Now don't give up, son."

Alexander: "But Dad, I'll never solve this homework."

Dagwood: "Always remember, son, Robert Fulton didn't give up — Thomas Edison didn't give up — and look at Irving McPringle."

Alexander: "Who's Irving McPringle?"

Dagwood: "See, you never heard of him — he gave up!"

on furniture, apply a thin paste of salt and salad oil. Let stand for an hour, then remove. Unless the stain has really penetrated the grain of the wood, it will respond to this treatment.

LEAVENS

Daniel Leavens made his house a home by marrying Jane Blount in 1809. The ceremony was performed before Stephen Conger, a Justice of the Peace; for ministers were scarce in those days and their services were often dispensed with by espousing couples. The seventeen-year-old bride was the daughter of Cornelius Blount. He was one of Hollowell's early settlers who came in with the Bowermans. Purchasing land from the Crown, he settled at Bloomfield near his fellow-travellers. It is related that he was compelled to carry on his back all the way from Picton, six miles distant, the only board he could find suitable for a door for his log cabin. Although brought up a Presbyterian, he became an orthodox Friend, probably through the influence of his wife.

Handwritten text, likely a letter or document, written in cursive script. The text is faint and mostly illegible due to the quality of the scan. It appears to be a formal document, possibly a letter of introduction or a business correspondence, given the structure and the use of capital letters at the beginning of lines.

SPENCER

Corey Spencer, the pioneer of this old family in Prince Edward County, was born in East Greenwich, Rhode Island, as long ago as 1760. Having reached the age of thirty-one, and prior to his migration to Canada, he married Matilda Bull, of Dutchess County, a daughter of Josiah Bull, a descendant of Henry Bull, who came to America in 1635, and has been mentioned as the eighteenth on Newport's list of first settlers. It is known that his wife belonged to the Friends Society, and that from the time of his marriage he professed the same faith.
